

New Name, Same Great Service!

Dear Valued Customer,

It is our pleasure to announce that Perkins Pacific and Southwest Products- Service and Engine divisions, have combined to become ...

Beginning on January 11, 2021, our employees will begin answering calls with the new business name. Over the month of January you'll begin to see our employee email and websites transition over to the new business name. Throughout 1st quarter 2021, you will see the additional branding rollouts made to stationary, invoices, uniforms, vehicles and buildings.

We look forward to continuing to provide you the best service and power solutions in the industry.
